Premium Payments.

2-1. The premium to be paid by a single person shall be $21 per annum; the premium to be paid by the head of a family shall be $33 per annum.

2-2. In each year there shall be two hospital insurance periods, one from January 1st to June 30th, inclusive, and the other from July 1st to December 31st, inclusive.

2-3. Premiums shall be paid in advance, either in full or on an instalment plan prescribed by the Commissioner. Where payment in full of the annual premium is made, it shall be paid on or before November 30th of the year immediately preceding the year to which the payment applies.

2-4. Except as otherwise provided, where the annual premium is paid in two or more instalments, the payments shall be made in time to provide for prepayment of the required premium for the next ensuing hospital insurance period on or before May 31st or November 30th, as the case may be.

2-5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 2-4, where a person is employed by an employer who is required to deduct premiums from the salary or wages of his employees pursuant to the Act, the employer shall, in each month, deduct a premium of $1.75 from each employee who is a single person and a premium of $2.75 from each employee who is the head of a family.

2-6. In addition to the requirements under Regulation 2-5, every employer shall, within one month of the date on which a person becomes an employee or upon receipt of a notice from the Commissioner or other officer of the Hospital Insurance Service, make such other deduction from the salary or wages of the employee as shall be sufficient to pay any premium payments that are in arrears and to prepay the premium for a period of six months.

2-9. Where a person who has been granted exemption pursuant to clause (e), or who is entitled to exemption pursuant to clause (f) of subsection (1) of section 8 of the Act, renounces his exemption in order to qualify as a beneficiary, such a person shall pay a prorated premium calculated from the first day of the month following the date on which his exemption status terminated, and he shall be deemed to be a beneficiary one month from the date on which payment of the required premium is made and not sooner.

In such cases a person shall, if he is not otherwise disqualified, be deemed to be a beneficiary on the day on which he ceases to be entitled to exemption or on the date of payment of the premium, whichever is later.

2-12. Except when otherwise prescribed by the Commissioner, a resident of the Province who is not personally liable for the payment of a premium by reason of the fact that he is a dependent who is registered pursuant to the Act and on whose behalf a premium has been paid shall, if he ceases to be a dependent, pay that portion of the annual premium that is applicable to the hospital insurance period which next follows, not later than the last day of the fifth month of the current hospital insurance period or the date on which he ceases to be a dependent, whichever is later.

2-13. Notwithstanding any direction given by or on behalf of a person paying a premium, every premium payment shall, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Commissioner, be applied first toward the payment of the oldest premium owing.
